Sorry for the delay guys. After having burnt our fingers with last month's list, we didn't want to publish our monthly altcoins list for October with so much uncertainty in the market. We believe that post-BTG fork, we should have some market stability and predictions would be more accurate.

Most of the exchanges have taken a screenshot of BTC Balance, BTG will be credited to our wallet in few hours with 1:1 Ratio. Now its good time to jump into altcoins for next two weeks. There are many good buying opportunities out there and we have done our research. finally decided to release a list of top 10 altcoins to buy now for Nov month. We suggest you do secondary research on these coins before making a decision to buy in.

it was time they realized that the crypts are their competitors ... when you have the monopoly of the world you fall asleep and we do not want to fall asleep thanks to google that has a nice name but it's just a monster
